Tsunami

Overview:

Tsunamis are powerful waves typically spawned by undersea earthquakes, landslides, or volcanism. The key is mass earth movement that displaces a large volume of water. The resulting waves often travel in a series and at great speed. They may arrive on beaches for hours, often thousands of miles from the location of the undersea disturbance. Tsunami waves can be massive and hit the beach faster than a person can run. They can travel inland long distances and bring with them tremendous destructive power.

A tsunami is closely related to a seiche (pronounced “saysh”). Seiche waves can appear when lakes and harbors are subject to ground shaking or when a landslide occurs into or under the water. Seiches and other destructive waves can also be produced by atmospheric conditions, especially from wind or rapid changes in barometric pressure.

Major tsunamis are rare worldwide, occurring about once per decade, according to the National Tsunami Warning Center. For years, the tsunami risk in King County was believed to be mitigated somewhat because Whidbey Island acts like a shield to absorb ocean swells entering Admiralty Inlet.

Science has since demonstrated a more complex picture, with some of the greatest tsunami concerns here linked to strong, shallow quakes along local faults, including the Seattle Fault and the South Whidbey Island Fault. The ways tsunami waves can move about inside Puget Sound are also better understood.

Public Messages/Alerts:

1. Tani waa King County Emergency Management. National Tsunami Warning Center Xarunta (Qaranka ee Digniinta Sunamida) waxay soo saartay Digniin Sunami oo ay ku jiraan xeebaha King County. Hirarka iyo qulqulo xooggan ayaa laga yaabaa inay yimaadaan subaxdan dambe, balse weli lama hubo waqtiga saxda ah. Saameyntu waxay sii socon kartaa dhowr saacadood. Nabadgelyo ku jir. Ka fogow xeebaha Puget Sound iyo meelaha biyaha u dhow.

3. Tani waa King County Emergency Management. National Tsunami Warning Center Xarunta (Qaranka ee Digniinta Sunamida) waxay soo saartay Digniin Sunami oo ay ku jirto xeebta King County ee ku teedsan Puget Sound. Hirar ka dheereeya xawaaraha uu qofku ordi karo ayaa la filayaa xeebaha, meelaha biyaha u dhow, iyo afafka webiyada ee XX XX. U BAX HADDA meel sare. Ku dhiirrigeli dadka kale inay sidaas oo kale sameeyaan. Macluumaad: kcemergency.com
4. Digniin Sunami. KA BAX xeebaha Puget Sound, meelaha biyaha u dhow, iyo afafka webiyada HADDA.

Holding Statements:

1. [Agency] waxay wax ka qaban doontaa xaaladda degdegga ah iyo saameynteeda sida ugu dhakhsaha badan ee suurtagalka ah. Waxaan kusoo siin doonnaa wixi soo cusboonaada si joogto ah.
2. Kheyraadka bulshada ayaa diiradda saaraya ka jawaabidda xaaladda degdegga ah iyo wax ka qabashada saameynteeda sida ugu dhakhsaha badan ee suurtagalka ah. Waxaan kusoo siin doonnaa wixi soo cusboonaada si joogto ah.
3. Qaybaha gurmadka degdegga ah waxay sii wadaan qiimaynta dhulgariir cabbirkiisu yahay [number] magnitude ee dhacay [time / AM / PM].
4. Red Cross (Laanqayrta Cas) waxay ka furtay hoy loogu talagalay [name of earthquake] ee ku yaalla [location].
5. Waxaa jira hoy degdeg ah oo ka furan [location].

Talking Points:

1. Fadlan badbaadadaada iyo tan qoyskaaga ka dhig mudnaanta koowaad.
2. Fadlan HA U tegin xeebaha ama meelaha dhaadheer ee ku teedsan Puget Sound adigoo rajaynaya inaad aragto sunami. Hirarkan waxay noqon karaan kuwo aad u burburiya oo keeni kara waxyeello socon karta saacado badan. Waddooyinka u dhow xeebaha iyo meelaha hoose ee u dhow afafka webiyada waa in laga ilaaliyo oo laga faaruqiyaa.
3. Haddii aad ku nooshahay meel u dhow xeebta, hubi deriskaaga, haddii ay suurtagal tahayna is taxadara midkiinba midka kale. Haddii daadgurayn loo baahdo, waxaad noqon kartaa jidka ay ku badbaadaan.
4. Kheyraadka bulshada ayaa diiradda saaraya ka jawaabidda xaaladda degdegga ah iyo wax ka qabashada saameynteeda sida ugu dhakhsaha badan ee suurtagalka ah. Waxaan kusoo siin doonnaa wixi soo cusboonaada si joogto ah., waxaanan diyaar u nahay inaan qaadno tallaabooyin ku habboon sida xiridda xeebaha, daadguraynta dadka, iyo dib u rarista maraakiibta, iwm.
5. Haddii hirarka sunami ay yimaadaan, daadad soo noqnoqda ayaa suurtagal ah marka hirarku gudaha dhulka u socdaan kadibna dib u noqdaan. Hirarka ugu waaweyn lagama yaabo inay marka hore yimaadaan.

6. Sababtoo ah tani waa arrin soo bixi doonta: HA isku dayin inaad dabaalato, dul sabeyso, ama ku luuqayso sunami dhexdiisa. Ka fogow biyaha. Sunamiyadu uma dhaqmaan sida hirarka caadiga ah ee aan aragno; waxay socon karaan 5 ilaa 45 daqiiqo iyagoo soo galaya xeebta kadibna dib u guraya. Waxay u badan tahay inay wataan qashin sabeynaya ama biyo hoostooda ku qarsoon. Haddii aad dhibaato gasho, waxay u badan tahay in aysan jiri doonin dad diyaar u ah inay ku badbaadiyaan. Kaliya ha sameyn. Fadlan.
7. Xeebaha u jeeda jiho kasta waxa halis geli kara sunamida, sababtoo ah hirarku waxay ku wareegi karaan jasiiradaha iyo dhul-biyoodka waxayna geli karaan gacamo-badeedka.
8. Fadlan ha wicin 9-1-1 marka laga reebo xaalad degdeg ah.
9. Khadadka telefoonka waxaa laga yaabaa inay buux dhaafaan. Farriimaha qoraalka ayaa gaari kara marka wicitaannada codka aysan shaqayn karin. Haddii ay suurtagal tahay, isticmaal fariimaha qoraalka iyo baraha bulshada si aad qoyskaaga ugu sheegto xaaladdaada.

Wildfire

Overview:

The wildland fire season in King County usually begins in early July and ends with the rains of fall. However, fires have occurred here during every month of the year, influenced by drought, limited snowpack, and local weather conditions. Although lightning strikes often are associated with wildland fires, humans are the biggest cause, responsible for about one in every four. Each year, human-caused fires on average damage more than 4,000 acres of state-protected lands in Washington.

The county has seen wildland fires of more than 100 acres during the last 40 years but it has had myriad smaller fires and multiple close calls. The greatest potential danger zones for people lie in the places where trees, shrubs and homes are mixed together. These areas are called the wildland urban interface. In King County, the interface is home to an estimated 351,000 people.

The risk of wildland fire is heavily influenced by weather. A damp spring can encourage plant growth, providing more potential fuel. A damp summer can slow how quickly vegetation dries and becomes tinder.

Wind makes wildfires significantly more difficult to contain. Trouble typically increases when winds reach 7 mph or greater. Winds can carry embers and sparks, which can touch off spot fires.

In King County, warm winds from the east create conditions requiring extra vigilance. These winds – sometimes referred to as synoptic winds – not only reduce humidity and dry out fuel, they also can be sustained and move with great speed. Winds of this type are associated with some of the Pacific Northwest's most catastrophic wildfires.

Evacuation alerts in King County follow the Ready, Set, Go model.

Ready: The alert occurs when there is no immediate danger to people or to property in the affected area but the fire may be headed that way. This is the time for people to scout evacuation routes, to firm up their personal plans for leaving the area, to gather up necessities, to check on neighbors who may need help and to take steps to keep pets and livestock safe. Corresponds to Level 1 alert.

Set: There is significant risk of fire in the area and a high probability there will be a need to evacuate. People should prepare to leave the area at any time. Do they know where they will go? Law enforcement may be making door-to-door notifications. Older people and those living with disabilities should be encouraged to leave the area at this time. Corresponds to Level 2 alert.

Go: Evacuate. There is immediate danger. People need to load up their families and pets and leave using pre-designated routes. Corresponds to Level 3 alert.

Severe Weather, Extreme Heat

Overview:

Extreme Heat is dangerous and can cause illness and death. When it's hot, the number of people who have serious health problems like heart attacks, stroke, and kidney failure rises with the temperature. Multiple days of hot weather can increase the risk to the public of heat exhaustion, heat stroke, and death. Older people, young children, and those with medical conditions are at higher risk from extreme heat. A priority during heat emergencies must be helping vulnerable people access air-conditioned spaces, including dedicated cooling centers.

Deadly heat wave 2021

Between June 26 and July 2, 2021, an unprecedented weather event brought triple-digit temperatures to King County and much of the Pacific Northwest, from Oregon into British Columbia. Over 100 people died in Washington State alone and more than 70% of these deaths were among people aged 65 and older. For perspective, there have been 39 deaths from heat across the state from 2015 to 2020.
